Latest.

PHILADELPHIA, Wednesday. Oct. 12—3:30 A. M.

The vote in the State is sy close that probably the soldiers' votes will be necessary to decide the result.

Forney's Press claims a Union majority of 10,000, which the soldiers' vote will increase to 20,000. It thinks there will be a Union gain in members of Congress, and of the Legislature.

The Age claims a Demovratic majority on the home vote of 10,090 or 12,900.

POPULAR VOTE.

The popular home vote, so far as indicated by the partial returns for Congressmen, will not vary materially from last year, when Gov. CURTIN carried the State for the Union cause by 15,335. The county majorities are slightly varied in several of the heavy Union Districts (as in Alleghany), by the circumstance that the opposition to the candidates was not sufficiently formidable to bring out the full vote. The same remark applies to one or two of the strong Democratic districts.

FIRING FROM THE REBEL BATTERIES.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Information received from the Army of the Potomac to-day states that on Sunday night between 12 and 1 o'clock the enemy opened fire towards the Second Corps, and continued the attack for only twenty or thirty minutes. Our troops did not reply. It is not known that the enemy inflicted any damage on our troops.

When the mailboat left City Point yesterday, all was comparatively quiet.

THE ARMY OF THE JAMES.

The Fight of Friday—The Rebel Loss—A Ride Over the Battle Field—Desertions from the Rebel Fleet—Exchange of Prisoners.

From Our Own Correspondent.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE JAMES, }
SUNDAY, Oct. 9, 1864. }

From yesterday's Richmond papers I learn that the attack on our lines by the enemy on Friday resulted in greater damage than was at first supposed. Their loss in officers was heavy. We buried one Colonel and several officers of less rank, that had been left on the field, and the Examiner says that Brig.-Gen. GREGG, of Texas, was killed, and Brig.-Gen. BARTON, of South Carolina, and Col. HASKELL, were severely wounded. Gen. GREGG was well known to many of our officers, and his death is spoken of with regret, for he had not much heart in the rebellion.

Yesterday I accompanied an officer of Brevet Major-Gen. TERRY's Staff over the battle field and saw abundant evidence of the hotness of the fight. The battle was entirely outside of breastworks, and our men had no advantage of cover. They stood up shoulder to shoulder in a piece of pine woods of young growth, and the rebels advanced upon them over ground precisely similar to that in which they were drawn up. Scarcely a tree had escaped a scratch, and some were riddled to such an extent that a very little pressure of the hand would have snapped them down. There were many graves of rebels who had advanced up to fifty yards from line of battle, and the space in front of our line was strewn with blood-stained haversacks, cartridge-boxes, ammunition, and other indications of a hurried removal of wounded. Along the precise line where TERRY had formed his troops, I saw a very strong breastwork, which had arisen magically out of the ground since the fight, produced by no other implements than bayonets, tin cans and plates. It is wonderful that soldiers can do so much with so little. But they love their lives, and to protect them excites all their ingenuity. Riding out to the picket line, I saw several dead horses, labeled "C. S.," on a plateau where the enemy had posted their artillery, being mute monuments of the deadly effect of the fire from our light batteries. Where so many horses were killed, it is pretty certain that there must have been many men placed hors du combat. Taking everything into consideration, we are fully convinced that the advantage gained by the enemy in the capture of KAUTZ's guns was terribly retaliated by the Tenth Corps, and the punishment was so severe that the experiment of turning our right flank is not likely to be renewed. LEE was present with the rebel troops during the fight, and his personal presence was insufficient to inspire the men after they had been whipped. Deserters and prisoners say that they retreated up the Darbytown and Charles City roads to the defences of Richmond more like a disorganized rabble than anything else.

Gen. TERRY told me of an instance of presence of mind and personal pluck which is well worth mentioning. While he was advancing his division in pursuit of the rebels up the Darbytown road, he sent back one of his orderlies, private SELLEW, of the Seventh Connecticut regiment, to bring up his headquarters supplies. Some distance in the rear of the column, SELLEW encountered four armed rebels who mistook him for one of their own men, and inquired the way to their brigade. SELLEW was entirely unarmed, but with admirable coolness he told them that he would conduct them where they wanted to go, and led them in as prisoners.

The official estimate of our losses is set down at 350 men killed, wounded and prisoners, 150 horses and eight guns.

Deserters come in freely. I heard of fifteen yesterday. Six of these were from the rebel gunboats in the James, near Fort Drewry. These fellows say that on Friday night it was believed that an attack was to have been made on the iron-clads by our navy, and preparations were made to meet it. Boarding-nets were tied up, the vessels moved further down the river, and a stout hawser stretched from shore to shore at a point near Cox's Ferry. Yesterday morning a midshipman and twelve men were sent down in a launch to take up the hawser, and the six deserters were landed on our side of the river, while the officer and the remainder of the boat's crew went over to let go the end of the hawser fastened to the opposite bank. The six at once took French leave of service in the rebel navy.

The flag-of-truce boat New-York leaves Varina Landing this morning with 750 sick and wounded soldiers, brought down from Richmond yesterday, who are bound to Annapolis, thence to be forwarded on furlough to their homes. Among the officers brought down were three belonging to colored regiments, showing that the rebels are retreating from the position they took at first respecting the rights of colored soldiers. During this trip Col. MULFORD has received fourteen hundred of our men, and will bring back a boat-load of rebels in exchange for them. The exchange business has been conducted at Cox's Landing, near Dutch Gap, a point within our lines, and, by permission of Col. MULFORD, I have had the sad pleasure of witnessing the transaction. Most of our boys, as they stepped on shore from the rebel boat, anp hobbled along to the ambulances ready to convey them to Varina, would fervently ejaculate, "Thank God! I'm in Yankee land once more." Nearly all of them visibly showed the sufferings under which they are laboring from wounds and the rigors of the Richmond prisons.

Judge OULD, the rebel Commissioner, and his Adjutant-General, Capt. HATCH, have come down with the prisoners every day during the progress of exchange, and by personal supervision have done much to alleviate the distress of the maimed and sick. They both have the character of being humane, and sincerely desirous of doing all in their power to mitigate the condition of the prisoners.

Yesterday Judge OULD had a narrow escape from drowning. He was stepping ashore from his steamer when the gang-plank slipped, and he was thrown into the river. The current was strong, and, being unable to swim, he was drawn beneath the boat, whence he was rescued with difficulty.

During yesterday and last night the weather has suddenly changed from an oppressive hotness to a severe cold snap, and there has been considerable suffering among the troops in consequence. A few days' preparation, however, will make everybody ready for the freezing weather, if perchance it shall continue.

FROM CITY POINT.

Successful Reconnoissance at the Left—Erection of a New Hotel, the Maltby House—Great Improvements at City Point—The First Installment of Winter.

From Our Own Correspondent.

CITY POINT, Va., Monday, Oct. 10, 1864.

Your active correspondent at the left, Mr. G. F. WILLIAMS, sends me word that a reconnoissance in force took place yesterday, by the entire Fifth Corps and Second Division of the Ninth Corps. The Fifth moved out in three parallel columns up the West Halifax, Vaughn and Squirrel Level roads. The Ninth (POTTER's Division) took up ground in front of the Pegram House, and WILCOX's Division went up the Church road to the Dinwiddie Court-house, seized a line of works, pushed on to the Boynton plank-road, and got within a mile of the Southside Railroad. LEE moved a heavy column from Richmond, and, after a weary day, we fell back to an intrenched position at sunset, well satisfied with the results of the day's work. Heavy picket-firing had been going on all day and night, but without any effect.

City Point is at last betraying some symptoms of latent civilization. We have a hotel! Mr. A. C. KIMBALL, in connection with Mr. MALTBY, of Baltimore, (brother of Mr. L. A. MALTBY, proprietor of the celebrated Maltby House in that city) seeing the necessities of this locality, have come to the rescue in the nick of time, and put up a spacious building that can now afford he hapless wayfarer both food and shelter. Until their advent, it was impossible to conceive a place more utterly inhospitable to the wandering traveler, who happened to have no acquaintance here, or was unable to find his way to the United States Sanitary Commission for temporary protection. For a bed, there was a wharf, or the bed of the river, and as to food, there were one or two mythical places, called "restaurants," somewhere on the hill, where one could pay a dollar for a cup of undrinkable coffee and some uneatable ham and eggs, of extremely doubtful character.

The new hotel, which is inaugurated under the very respectable name of the "Maltby House," is a frame building, erected in the shape of a T; 110 feet in front and 101 feet deep, with accommodations, when thoroughly completed, for 150 beds. They have two large dining-rooms, one 40 feet by 30 feet, for officers and citizens, on the table d'hôte system, and another 30 feet by 30 feet, for soldiers, citizens, &c., on the European plan of a restaurant. The rates will be one dollar per meal, and one dollar for lodging, or four dollars per day. Some idea of the energy shown by the gentlemen who have this matter in hand, is proved from the fact that twenty-two days ago the lumber of which the building is erected was in Baltimore, and that the hotel has already been running four days, although, of course, by no means yet in a complete state. Such, however, is the eagerness to grasp accommodation of any kind, that rooms are not only bespoken but actually taken possession of and occupied, even in an incomplete state.

I tell you things are made to fly whenever Yankee thrift and ingenuity get fairly to work. This hotel will necessarily bring corresponding improvements all around and about it, and as this fine position on the James River must always be a desirable one as a base, even after we get Petersburgh and Richmond, I have no doubt that the infusion of a little healthy northern enterprise will soon plant an actual city at this point, which seems by its name to have been destined for one, and which would doubtless have long since boasted a living and prosperous community, but for the enervating, stagnating, and retrograding influences which invariably attend slave institutions and all belonging to them. The beneficent Creator never could have intended such glorious streams as the James and others which course through the noble lands of the Old Dominion to have any such drawbacks put upon them by the selfish calculations of man.

Jack Frost is upon us, and, by the extreme suddenness of his arrival, is by no means a welcome visitor. On Friday last we were in burning midsummer weather; this morning we woke up, after a very cold and bitter wind on the preceding day, to find the wharf, ground and trees covered with a heavy hoar frost. The air is, however, bright, beaming and healthy to those who are able to protect themselves from its severity.

The Rebels Make a Reconnoissance Under a Flag of Truce—Particulars of the Engagement Gathered at City Point.

From Our Own Correspondent.

CITY POINT, VA., Friday Evening, Oct. 7, 1864.

Quite a brisk engagement occurred to-day, but whether or not of magnitude enough to be called a battle, is more than I can at present tell. It was just about the period of the mailboat's leaving, this morning, that the firing, which had been very distinctly heard at this place for an hour or two previous, became so loud and continued as to convey the idea that something very important was going on.

Availing myself of the opportunity afforded by the departure of the Sanitary Commission boat Gov. Curtin for Deep Bottom, I [illegible] pleasure of going there in company with [illegible] ANDERSON; and obtained what facts I [illegible] from the wounded who were brought [illegible] action then concluded.

From the [illegible] testimony of all I conversed with [illegible] are simply these. Some time during [illegible] the rebels sent in a flag of truce to Major-[illegible] TERRY, commanding First Division of Tenth [illegible], ostensibly to make some arrangements about prisoners, but in reality—it is feared—to get a correct notion of our position and strength. At any rate it seems to have been pretty well understood among a portion of our men that they were to be attacked this morning. Whether or not our cavalry posted at the extreme right, were aware of the fact, I know not, but certain it is that the enemy, composed of cavalry, infantry and artillery, in concentrated numbers, came upon them. Our cavalry, composed of the Fifth Pennsylvania and Third New-York, forming First Brigade of Gen. KAUTZ's Division of Cavalry, under Col. WEST, and the Eleventh Pennsylvania, First Division Cavalry, and a portion of the First Maryland, under Col. S. P. SPEAR, were located at the extreme right, some five miles from Richmond, with their pickets about half a mile in advance. It was about 6 o'clock A. M., when the enemy drove in our pickets, and fell upon our cavalry, compelling them, after a gallant but ineffectual resistance to overwhelming numbers, to fall back with the loss of portions of two batteries, comprising eight guns. The location is described at or near a place called Gheart's Farm, on the Derbytown Road. Emboldened by their success, the rebels pushed on and tried a flanking movement upon our forces in their intrenched position, but were repulsed by the gallant divisions of Major-Gen. TERRY and Brig.-Gen. FOSTER, of the Tenth Corps, who inflicted great punishment upon the enemy.

The upshot of the affair, apart from the loss of the aforesaid field-pieces, is that the enemy have gained nothing by the last movement, and have not succeeded in driving us from any one of the positions we so stubbornly occupy. Every such assault in reality costs them three or four to our one—at a time, too, when they can far less afford it than we can—for matters are now completely reversed, and they have to attack us in our defences instead of our attacking them in theirs.

The exact number of our killed, wounded and prisoners, I have not been able yet to ascertain, but I have reason to think them slight. Some 30 wounded were brought down to Deep Bottom while I was there, and four or five of them were serious cases, the others slight and with every chance of recovery. Others were taken to the Boyd Hospital at ——. Among the wounded I noticed Capt. G. D. KER of Company G, Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry, wounded severely in neck and shoulder; Lieut. G. C. GIBBS of Third New-York Cavalry, and Sergt. WOLFF of Company B, Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry, the former wounded in the leg and the latter in the neck, both in a fair way of recovery; also EDWARD B. PECK, Adjutant of the One Hundredth New-York Infantry. I cannot vouch for its accuracy, but the orderly of Capt. KER, who was with him in the fight when he was struck, and who was carefully watching over him, assured me that the Captain killed the rebel Gen. GASKILL with his own hand. Among the wounded brought in were three or four rebels, one of them an officer of some distinction.

All was quiet at the front when I left Deep Bottom this afternoon at 5 o'clock, but how long it will remain so no one could say. We must, of course, expect the enemy, in their despair, to be periodically butting their heads against the adamantine walls being built around them. I found and left the Sanitary Commission agents busily employed among the poor sufferers—whether Union or rebel—administering every conceivable comfort; and the medical officers zealously performing their painful but necessary duties.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

The Situation on the Left—Preparations for Aggressive Movements.

From Our Own Correspondent.

HEADQUARTERS FIFTH CORPS, }
WELDON ROAD, Saturday, Oct. 8, 1864. }

Nothing of any immediate importance of interest has occurred in the Army of the Potomac since the close of the recent operations on our left. The army is quietly resting upon its laurels, and completing the projected lines of offensive and defensive works. The new levies are being drilled, and everything that tends to the improvement and comfort of the troops is being attended to. Large quantities of Winter clothing are now on hand, and the much needed overcoats, blankets, tents, shoes and underclothing are being rapidly issued to the men. The Ordnance Department is also receiving all due attention, and the strong hands of the gallant "vets" of this army are made still more strong by a replenished armory and fresh ammunition. Altogether the equipment of the "armies operating against Richmond" (as my pass has it) was never better. The approaching movements, which I am sure every one in the North expects, and which cannot be contraband to speak of—despite the genial letter of Gen. BUTLER—will be inaugurated with the troops having every requisite for a successful onslaught or a vigorous prosecution of the campaign.

The works just completed by the Fifth and Ninth Corps are most admirable for the strength of their position and beauty of their execution.

A good deal of picket firing has occurred along the front of the Second Corps yesterday and the day before, and occasional shells and mortar bombs were thrown over into the enemy's lines, and the City of Petersburgh, by our batteries. While riding along the works held by this corps, I accidentally became mixed up in the maze of parallels and rifle-pits, and unwittingly rode up close to the outer line of pickets. A warning voice, telling me "to take that horse out of there," gave me the first intimation of my danger, and quickly wheeling my pony, I beat a hasty retreat, not before I received a salute of two or three bullets. My pony evidently understood the urgency of his speed, for he made good time, and gave me great satisfaction. The boys in the trenches, as a matter of course, enjoyed the joke, and, like all soldiers, hurrahed most lustily. But I must say they were very complimentary in commenting upon my conduct under fire, and I was impressed with the conviction that it was only in the army that the sterner qualities of manhood were prized at their proper value. Correspondents are quickly recognized out here, and you are frequently asked the question by some bronzed and weather-stained volunteer, what paper you represent. Great courtesy is always extended to the knight of the quill by these hardy defenders of the flag, for they seem to recognize the fact that we are writing their history and embalming their gallant deeds. I miss, however, the piquant sauce of guerrillas so common in the Valley of the Shenandoah.

Heavy firing could be heard all day yesterday, on our extreme right, and the rumor is that Gen. KAUTZ has been compelled to fall back before a superior force, and has lost four guns. How true this news is I am unable to say, but your correspondent with that branch of the army will no doubt give you full particulars. I understand that the cavalry succeeded in getting almost inside of the defences of Richmond, and that the information gained by them was most valuable, and worth all we lost in obtaining it.

The weather lately has been most charming, and the effects of the recent rains—mud and dilapidated roads—have almost entirely disappeared. During meridian the heat is quite oppressive, and a shade is found very desirable. The evenings are delicious, and now that we have the moon with us, some very pleasant ones can be spent.

During the lull in the operations Gen. G. K. WARREN, Commander of the Fifth Corps, has gone North on a brief furlough. Gen. CRAWFORD is now temporarily in command of the corps, and Gen. BAXTER has assumed the charge of Gen. CRAWFORD's Division.

Altogether the situation in front of Petersburgh and Richmond is most encouraging, for we have gained one more step to the complete investment of both cities, and have tightened our grip upon LEE's army, and will ultimately shake the very life out of him and the rebellion. Of course, although seemingly quiescent, Gen. GRANT and his gallant army are by no means idle. Far from it. Every day sees some movement executed that, although seemingly unimportant and insignificant in itself, still forms a part of the great onward movement that is constantly going on in our siege operations. What these movements are can scarcely be of interest, for they principally consist of changes in the disposition of the troops, and besides are contraband.

The rebels are evidently at the last stand, and it would not surprise me, at any moment, to find that LEE had evacuated Petersburgh, and when he does that, Richmond is virtually ours. Let us keep up good courage, for the end is not far off, and already the bow of promise appears, and the enduring faith and heroic courage of our soldiers is about to be crowned by brilliant victory and exultant peace.

LATE SOUTHERN NEWS.

Our late files of Richmond papers give us the following additional extracts:

WAR NEWS.

THE FIGHT AT SALTVILLE.

From the Richmond Whig, Oct. 7.

The Lynchburgh papers bring us some particulars of the fight at Saltville.

The fight commenced about 10 o'clock Sunday morning on the road leading from Saltville to the Lebanon and Tazewell Court-house pike, about one and a quarter miles from Saltville. From this point our forces were driven about one-fourth of a mile, where they took position on the side of a high hill, covered with a dense undergrowth of bushes and briars. There were no breastworks on this hill, and no trees sufficiently large for protection. Here, from noon until dark, the Yankees repeatedly charged our position, but were received with such a withering fire as to be each time compelled to fall back in confusion and with heavy loss. At nightfall the battle ceased, and at 10 o'clock that night the enemy commenced retreating, going through Thompson's Pass, on the same road upon which they advanced, leaving their dead and some of their wounded on the field, but carrying off, such of the wounded as could be moved.

The total loss of the Reserves was 18 killed, 71 wounded, 21 missing. The regular regiments lost 39 wounded, none killed.

The men detailed to bury the Yankee dead, buried one hundred and six whites and one hundred and fifty-seven negroes, but gentlemen who visited the field on Wednesday assure us that numbers of the dead, both white and black, are still unburied. They think that these will reach fifty or sixty in number, which would make the Yankee killed upwards of three hundred. There are eighty-six wounded Yankees in the hospital at Emory, among them Brigadier-General HANSON, of Kentucky, supposed to be mortally wounded, who is said to be a brother of General ROGER HANSON, who was killed in the Confederate service. A gentleman who conversed with the General tells us that he puts the Yankee loss at one thousand to twelve hundred, which we are inclined to believe is an under estimate. There are also included among the wounded six negroes.

Our forces were commanded on the field by Gen. A. E. JACKSON. Gens. BRECKINRIDGE and ECHOLS were also on the field after the fight had progressed for some time.

As soon as the retreat of the enemy was discovered, pursuit was commenced by our cavalry, but with what success has not been learned. There was a report at Saltville Wednesday night that our troops had overtaken them at the Richlands, thirty miles from the battle-field, and captured five hundred prisoners. This report, however, needs confirmation. The enemy had only three pieces of artillery, and these are reported to have fallen into the hands of Col. GILTNER, who is conducting the pursuit. The enemy, on their retreat, threw away guns, pistols, swords, ammunition, overcoats, knapsacks, &c., in the greatest profusion. The road from the battle-field to within three miles of Thompson's Pass, thirty miles from the battle-field, was literally strewed with these articles. A large number of pack mules were abandoned and fell into our hands.

No portion of the Salt Works were reached by the enemy. They were met in an open field and defeated in a pitched battle by one-fifth their numbers, and it will be long, we predict, before another attempt is made to capture these important works.

TUESDAY, Oct. 11, P. M.

The Gold Room was higher to-day by 2½ @ 3½ per cent than the sales of Monday. The speculation was carried up to 202½ per cent, but subsequently fell back to 201½ per cent. At a later hour the price went up again to 203. The Exchange on London, for the Boston mail, went up ¼ @ ⅜ per cent for Gold on first-class Bankers' bills. The closing quotation was 109 @ 109½ per cent. There is great discrimination shown by remitters since the recent difficulties in England, and very prime signatures command a rate much nearer the shipping point of Specie than last week.

The steadiness noticed in the Railway speculation, at the Stock Exchange on Monday afternoon, was succeeded to-day by a very buoyant market throughout the New-York and Western list. In the forenoon the advance on Erie was 2 ₩ cent., and on some of the Western Roads 2@3 ₩ cent., and at the Second Board there was a further rise of 1@2 ₩ cent, as compared with Monday's closing sales. On Reading the advance was 2¼@2½ ₩ cent.

The Government Stocks were steady. The Miscellaneous Shares sympathized strongly with the Railroads.

At 4 o'clock, the following quotations were made, as compared with the same hour yesterday:

We regret to hear, by the last English mail, of the decease of Mr. JOSHUA BATES, of the eminent Banking firm of BARING BROTHERS & Co., of London. Mr. BATES was a native of Boston, a successful merchant of long experience, and one of the truest friends of the United States, through our present troubles, that we could claim in London banking circles. Mr. B. had attained his 76th year.

The last mail from the other side brought advice of the protest of about £25,000 bills, drawn from New York by a concern in this City recently engaged in Gold and Exchange speculations. The loss on the bills, we hear, will be distributed among several Banking houses who purchased and remitted them.

The mercantile failures and threatened banking troubles in England will probably lead to the earlier withdrawal of a portion of the large American balances for some time in London, than would otherwise have been brought home. The hazards of the state of war on this side begin to look small in comparison with the risk of leaving Money exposed to the wildest operations of the London Stock Exchange, and the surges of the Liverpool Cotton market.

The present losses on Cotton in this market may be estimated from the circumstance that only 300 bales recently purchased on speculation in New-Orleans and sold in New-York, leaves a deficit of nearly $100,000, or nearly seventy cents a pound.

SMITH'S WHEELING BREWERY FOR SALE.

Being desirous of retiring from active business, I have determined to dispose of my old-established WHEELING BREWERY and MALTING ESTABLISHMENT, now in successful operation, together with the stock on hand, which is sufficient to enable a purchaser to proceed with the business without interruption, consisting in part of Ales, Malt Hops, Barrels, Coopers' Stuff, Teams and Fixtures, everything in complete order, and capable of brewing twenty thousand barrels of ale and malting forty thousand bushels of barley per season. The buildings comprise the large brick brewery, with the cellar and vaults complete, and malt house, brick coopers' shop, capable of turning out one hundred barrels per week, seven dwellings for employes, realizing an annual rent of $500, large stable, bag-room, wash-house and office, all lighted with gas manufactured on the premises.

The old-established reputation of my Ales and Malt in the East, West and South, and the regular cash customers for all I have been able to manufacture, with the increasing demand for malt liquors, makes it one of the most desirable opportunities that could be offered to a reliable party to engage in the business with a certain prospect of realizing a fortune in a few years.

Terms of Sale—As to real estate, one-fourth cash, the balance in one, two and three years, with interest, secured by mortgage on the premises. As to personal property, one-fourth cash, the balance in three, six and nine months.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The election returns last evening occupied the telegraph to the exclusion of all other news; and the only intelligence from our armies is that received during the afternoon. From the West we learn that the rebel demonstrations in Jefferson City on the 7th, was merely to occupy while the main body of the enemy crossed the Osage river. After feeling our fortifications, and finding them strong they passed westward during the night. They are said to be 20,000 strong, with about sixteen cannon. Gen. PLEASONTON arrived on the 9th, and assumed command, and followed the rebels the same day at the head of about 8,000 cavalry. At last accounts he was skirmishing with the enemy's rear-guard.

There is no intelligence from other points of the theatre of war.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Europa at Cape Race on the 10th brings intelligence via Queenstown to the 2d inst. The British Government had determined to reduce the militia system about thirty per cent. The Manchester Guardian publishes evidence that employment is becoming more scarce in the manufacturing districts. A gunpowder explosion took place on the 1st inst., at the Dartford powder mills. Forty lives were lost. The shock was felt at London, at a distance of 15 miles. Public opinion in Spain urges the immediate settlement of the St. Domingo question.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Elections yesterday in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, resulted in glorious triumphs for the Union cause. In Pennsylvania the majority will be fully equal to that of last year, to which will be added the soldiers' vote, bringing it up to thirty-five thousand at least. We also gain five members of Congress, making the delegation stand 17 Union to 7 Copperheads. In Ohio the majority on the home vote is estimated at 40,000 in the State, and the Congressional delegation will probably stand 16 Union to 3 Copperheads, instead of five to fourteen Copperheads as now. Indiana gloriously redeemed herself, electing Gov. MORTON by over 20,000 majority, and gaining at least two Union members of Congress, making the delegation stand six Union to five Copperheads, instead of four to seven, as now. Glory enough for one day! All hail, gallant trio of FREE STATES!

The live stock market shows a supply for the week of 6,447 beeves, 108 milch cows, 2,078 sheep and lambs, and 21,242 swine, making a total of 44,257 animals of all kinds. The receipts of the various kinds of stock have been mainly lighter than the previous week. Beef cattle show larger arrivals, and have advanced fully ½c. ℔ ℔. on last week's rates. The cattle offered this week have been light in weight, comparatively, and inferior in quality. Monday's market was fairly active, and the cattle were tolerably well cleared off, notwithstanding the advance and the absence of the Hebrews, who are observing the Day of the Atonement, one of their principal fasts. Medium to good bullocks sold at about 13½c.@17½c. ℔ ℔., net, while prime stock sold at 18c.@19c., and inferior offerings at 9c.@13c. On Tuesday a few fresh droves were booked, and the yards presented more activity than usual on account of the numbers of Jews present. Sales were effected at even better prices than on Monday. Good sheep show but little change in price from last week, ruling at 8¼c.@8½c., live weight. Lambs of a good quality, are worth 10c., showing an advance. Swine were worth on Monday from 12c.@13½c., live weight, for corn-fed; 9c.@11c. for grass-fed.

There was a rise in Gold yesterday to 203 per cent. The Railway speculation buoyant at the Stock Exchange. Government stocks steady.

Breadstuffs and Provisions opened rather briskly yesterday, and generally at firmer prices, but closed tamely and heavily. Groceries, Whisky, Oils, Cotton, Fish, Fruit, Hides, Leather, Metals, Seeds and Naval Stores were quiet and depressed. A moderate inquiry prevailed for Hay, Laths, Lime, Lumber, Tallow and Tobacco. The freight market was inactive.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday, and appointed Inspectors of Registry for all the Wards except the Tenth, Nineteenth and Twentieth, and then adjourned to noon to-day, when the appointments for these three Wards will be made.

Spirited meetings were held last evening by the Unionists of the Thirteenth, Seventeenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth and Twenty-first Wards, and by the Manhattan Union Clubs. All the Ward associations are vigorously at work.

Dispatches received in this City yesterday from Mr. HOLLIDAY, at Salt Lake City, represent that the Overland Mail route is now entirely free from Indians. It is believed that the measures adopted will insure the uninterrupted transmission of mails by this route for the future.

The Union Central Committee have appointed Col. CHAS. W. DARLING, from the Sixth Congressional District, to receive the army vote for the City and County of New-York.

Just two centuries ago, Oct. 12, 1664, the last Dutch Fort on the Delaware was taken by the English, and the conquest of New-Netherlands was complete. The New-York Historical Society will commemorate this event this evening, at Cooper Institute, by suitable acts and proceedings. The oration will be delivered by J. ROMEYN BRODHEAD, LL.D.

A card issued by the State Central Committee on Monday warned the Pennsylvanians against an attempt by New-York politicians to stuff the ballot-boxes.

The Charleston Courier, of Oct. 3, comes out squarely against the arming of the negroes, a project that is now being discussed throughout the Confederacy. It says: "Waving all other objections for the present, we protest against any unusual or apparently desperate expedient which would or could justify, or excuse, the belief that we are in extremities. We have men enough, we need only to put them in the right places. Japheth and Shem can and will maintain their birth-rights."

The last advance of the Fifth and Ninth corps is said to have taken our troops within a mile and a half of the Southside Railroad.

Hon. J. D. WILLARD, for forty years a resident of Troy, died in that city on Sunday evening. He graduated at Dartmouth College, studied law in Troy, and commenced to practice it there. He succeeded ORVILLE L. HOLLEY as editor of the Troy Sentinel, conducting it with signal ability for several years. He filled the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas very creditably throughout his term. Finding that his health was failing he made a trip to Europe, and soon after his return he was elected State Senator from this district, composed of Rensselaer and Washington counties, a district hostile to him politically. He was a prominent and influential member of the Senate, during the two years he was a member of it. At the close of his senatorial labors, he again, in company with his younger son, took another trip to Europe, without being much benefitted thereby.

The case of CLARK against BROOKS was continued yesterday in the Court of Common Pleas. Mr. CLARK, being examined as a witness, testified that in 1855 he purchased of JAMES BROOKS one-sixth of the whole Express newspaper; that since that time the profits of the concern had always been divided in the following proportions. JAMES BROOKS one-half, ERASTUS BROOKS one-third and STEPHEN T. CLARK one-sixth. The annual agreement was produced, signed by JAMES BROOKS, and transferring to plaintiff one-sixth of the whole paper. The subsequent agreement was shown to have been drawn up and executed under a mistake. The books and papers of the Express showed that STEPHEN T. CLARK had always received one-sixth of the profits. Some of these books produced by the defendants on requisition of plaintiff, appeared to have been cut or torn. Oral testimony was introduced to show that the portions cut or torn out would have exhibited the division of the profits in the above proportions. The case is still on.

JOHN B. GOUGH, the life-long advocate on temperance, delivered a new lecture on that subject at the Cooper Institute last night. Mr. GOUGH entertained a very large audience in his usual humorous and eloquent manner, varying with wit and anecdote the pathos of his theme.

Among the Democratic nominations made for county officers this Fall, is the name of CHARLES G. HALPINE, whose resignation from the army was recently accepted in a complimentary letter from the War Department. Mr. HALPINE is put forward by one of the outside Democratic organizations, and if all the Anti-Tammany elements of his party can be united upon his name, he will make a very formidable candidate. Mr. HALPINE, previous to the war, was long connected with the press of this City. H. W. GENET, the present County Clerk, formerly well known in connection with both boards of the Common Council, and at present "familiar to the fancy," as proprietor of the Fashion Race Course, is the Tammany candidate.

The pirate Georgia is now at New-Bedford, Mass., and is on exhibition there.

The Elections—Victory!

The great States of PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO and INDIANA, yesterday, gave their popular verdict in favor of the Union, the prosecution of the war against rebellion to its successful conclusion, and in favor of the present administration of the Government.

The verdict in all these States, as will be seen from our returns, is emphatic, even on the home vote in Pennsylvania, to which thousands, if not tens of thousands, will be added by the gallant soldiers of the proud old Commonwealth now in the field.

In Ohio the soldier's vote will not be needed to swell her triumphant majority to fifty or sixty thousand, though it may serve to sweep the last vestige of Peace Democracy from her Congressional Delegation. The city of Cincinnati, the home of GEORGE H. PENDLETON, the Peace colleague of Gen. McCLELLAN on the Democratic ticket, has done nobly.

In the gallant Volunteer State of Indiana, where a Democratic Legislature has not permitted her soldiers to vote, the great civil victory of yesterday is truly astounding; at once inspiring to the Union hearts of the North, where, we confess, some doubt was felt of the reëlection of Gov. MORTON, and crushing to the last hope of the Peace Democracy in the Northwest.

Jeff. Davis—New Omens of the Approaching End.

It is not to be wondered at that so many people should have doubted the authenticity of the report of JEFFERSON DAVIS' extraordinary speech at Macon, published in the Times of Friday last, in advance of our cotemporaries. It certainly had the air of a hoax. DAVIS, up to the present time, has acted a part before the world very different from the character which belonged to him before the War, or from that manifested by his public actions since. It was understood in former years, when he was Senator of the United States from Mississippi, that he was a man of no great personal courage, of irritable temper, and unbounded ambition, but one who, in general, could cover up the most dishonorable schemes or the most intense hatred, with the manners of a gentleman. His forte throughout his administration of this rebellion, has been that he has personally acted "like a gentleman." With the most suave propriety of manner, he has let loose a whirlwind which will desolate this continent for years to come. With perfect good-breeding he, more than any other one man, has instigated hundreds of thousands of men to cut the throats of their brethren. Seldom losing his self-control of manner, he has wielded an iron and relentless despotism over his own subjects. With mild words, and even with the phrases of a Christian, he has carried on war, as no despot of Asia would suffer it to be carried on; permitting prisoners to be starved, negroes to be murdered in cold blood, and the most astounding barbarities to be committed. Yet, through it all, he has preserved his propriety; with one or two exceptions, his speeches have shown comparatively little temper, and he has had the immense self-control of being able to conceal the fearful wounds which war was continually making in the resources of his insurgent followers. Now at length, however, he has lost his temper; he lets out the savage Southern wild beast which the slaveholders' civilization keeps so carefully under concealment; he blackguards his enemies; he blurts out his secrets; he betrays to the whole world his weakness; he is almost maudlin.

It seemed like a hoax, that the first great Southern commentary on GRANT'S famous epigram of "robbing the cradle and the grave," should be the rebel President accepting with pride a recruit of eight years, and calling on the aged and the maimed to drive out the invader! Then, for the cool and proper chief of the rebellion to speak of "BUTLER, the Beast;" and to acknowledge that two-thirds of his own armies were absent without leave, and that Virginia was as badly off as Georgia, certainly appeared like a practical joke.

And yet there is no doubt of the genuineness of this speech. It is commented on, in various style and spirit, in all the Southern papers, and was copied from the Macon Telegraph & Confederate into the columns of the Charleston and Richmond journals. Every day we receive fresh annotations upon it from the Southern editors. The truth was, that the skillful and cunning conspirator, who had brought such unnumbered woes on his countrymen and friends, as no man, however revengeful, has ever visited on his worst enemies; who had suffered a nation to be plunged into bloody fraternal strife for the sake of his own wretched ambition, now saw all his grand schemes of wickedness falling to pieces before his eyes; his country desolated, his kinsmen and companions killed, himself an outcast and exile, and his Crime to stand as one of the blackest and most unsuccessful on the page of history. With these fearful spectres haunting him of coming ruin, irritated by defeat, the wily rebel leader lost his self-control, and let out to the world confessions which he would now undoubtedly give anything to have buried up forever.

But we and the world, looking on, can judge more clearly from such impassioned and irritable utterances of the true condition of the Confederacy, than from any other evidence. We see plainly that its end must be near when JEFFERSON DAVIS calls on the old men and boys, the women and children, to help him, and admits such fearful disasters, as his Macon speech, for the first time, discloses. "Two-thirds of all his armies absent" show what the people feel about the struggle. Forced details may keep up appearances of numbers awhile. Regiments of negroes may add to the muster-rolls and lessen the real strength of the rebels. All these are but temporizing expedients. The day is fast approaching when there will be none left in the ranks to save the falling fortunes of the Confederacy, and its guilty leader will feel the retribution he now so gloomily foresees.

After the War, What?

That is the test question. The Union party and the Opposition are alike for soon closing the war. Their policies differ. The one aims to conquer, the other to buy, a peace. Either would soon end the contest—the one by taking away the power, the other by taking away the disposition, of the rebels to fight. It is not the ending of the war, but what would follow, that must determine which of the two policies is the better.

The end of the war, in the one case, would find us on solid Union ground, with every constitutional safeguard still firm in its place. There would not be a single disturbing force left. The crushing of the rebellion would of necessity break down, in conjunction with it, Slavery, its original cause. Should there be any troublesome remnants of the institution left, a brief Constitutional amendment, Constitutionally ratified by three-fourths of the State Legislatures, would easily sweep them out of existence. The thorough crushing of the rebellion would not only preserve all the great organic processes of the nation unimpaired, but would put them in the way of working more freely and harmoniously than ever. The end of the war would, in fact, be an epoch from which the nation would take a fresh start in its career of prosperity. The peace it would bring would be secure, and full of every promise.

On the other hand, a peace sought for by compromise would end only in confusion and ruin. The rebel chiefs declare, without qualification, that they will take no peace that does not recognize their independence. If the "Confederate States" could be induced to go at all into the "ultimate convention" declared for in the Chicago platform, they would do so only as members of the Confederacy; or, at the very utmost, would agree only to put that character in abeyance, with its resumption to depend upon their satisfaction with the conclusions of the convention, and upon the ratification of those conclusions by the Northern States. There is not the slightest reason to believe that such terms as alone would induce the Southern leaders to consent to an abandonment of the Confederacy, would be granted by three-fourths of the States, whose agreement would be necessary for an amendment of the Constitution.

To attempt to buy the Confederates back is to open the way to the fiercest discord, and to sure disorganization. No peace can come from it worthy of the name. The Confederates will not be bought off from this war by anything short of a sacrifice of the most precious principles of our Constitution, and of every high moral sentiment which accords with the progress of the age. It is monstrous infatuation to suppose that this Northern people could long rest under the payment of any such price, even supposing that, by some machination, they could for the moment be brought to consent to it. A reaction would inevitably come, and with it an "irrepressible conflict" in direr shape than ever.

Every real interest of peace, every regard for future concord and security, requires that this war should be fought through to its only legitimate end—the complete disablement of the rebellion which provoked it. There never was a more absurd misnomer than to style the opposite policy conservatism. Its whole tendency is disorganizing and subversive. There is no conservatism but in holding fast, with a religious determination, to the supremacy of constitutional authority, and compelling an absolute submission by rebels. This is the vital principle of all true constitutional Governments. Maintain it now consistently and thoroughly, and it will stand as an abiding security through the future. Yield it now, and seek to propitiate the rebellion by compliance, and we shall soon experience the same fate that has overtaken all the other republics of the New World. This is the tremendous issue that is to be determined in this Presidential election. The people comprehend it, and will pronounce upon it with a wisdom and a fidelity that will more grandly than ever prove them worthy of the matchless Government bequeathed them by their fathers.

The Conspiracy in the Northwest.

DODD, the Grand Master of the Sons of Liberty, in Indiana, who has just been on trial in Indianapolis for treason, has managed to effect his escape by breaking his parole, and has fled the country. Only a portion of the testimony against him had been put in by the Government, but the guilt was fastened upon him, and the organization of which he was the head, so conclusively, that flight was his only resource. It was proved that the organization extended through Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and other of the Northwestern States; that its members were bound to secrecy under the penalty of death, and that their plan was to arm and drill all of its members, and to prepare them for a rising against this Government whenever word should be given from the chiefs of the Order. The developments of this infamous conspiracy have made a great sensation in Indiana. Among the persons implicated and arrested is the editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, the principal Copperhead organ of the State. It is put beyond question that many of the members of the Chicago Convention were also members of this treasonable combination, and among them VALLANDIGHAM himself, the framer of the Chicago Platform. It was the discovery and seizure by the Government of a few of the arms belonging to the "Sons of Liberty" that prompted the charge against the Administration, in the fourth resolution in the Platform, of "interference with and denial of the right of the people to bear arms in their defence," and which also instigated HORATIO SEYMOUR to denounce President LINCOLN so vehemently in his Milwaukee speech, for attempts to disarm the people. Though DODD has taken to flight, we trust that the Government will bring to trial some of his companions in this infernal treason, and visit upon them condign punishment. These miscreants should be made to understand that they are living in a land of law. The people will quickly settle accounts with the party which has given them its countenance.

City Railroads and Omnibuses.

The City omnibuses some time since raised their fare from six to ten cents; but the public refused to patronize them at that price, and they were compelled to abandon the attempt. Soon afterward they raised their fare to eight cents, and in this the public has acquiesced as not unreasonable. The omnibuses are running full at that rate; and as the increase of price is equivalent to thirty-three and a third per cent., the owners of these vehicles ought to be satisfied. But they were not. They immediately went to work to get further advantage out of those who patronize them, first by forcing them to take their tickets instead of money for change, and then by over-crowding the stage without the slightest regard to the rights, convenience or comfort of those who had paid their fare and were entitled to the undisturbed enjoyment of that portion of the omnibus which they had thus bought. As the attempt to pass their tickets for money was directly contrary to law, and as some one passenger was found public-spirited enough to hold them to their responsibilities, the companies have been forced to abandon it.

The City Railroads have also raised their fare from five to six cents,—twenty per cent. This is utterly illegal and is a palpable violation of their charters,—every one of which is legally forfeited by the act. But the public is not disposed to complain. The people will pay the increased rate without objection if the Companies will treat them fairly in other respects. But they demand, and have a right to compel, reforms in the present management of these roads. They have a right to seats, and to their undisturbed possession. The present style of packing the cars just as full as they can be stuffed, is an outrage which ought not to be tolerated. If the Companies are not content with the number of passengers which each car will seat,—and if they insist on taking on more, they should be compelled to provide seats on top. They should run more cars, or should use larger ones. There are half a dozen ways of overcoming the difficulty, and there is no shadow of excuse for not resorting to them.

The companies pretend that they cannot run the roads profitably if they make these improvements. The pretext is not true. The roads are restricted by law to a certain per cent. of profit on their cost. Nearly every one of them divides twice or three times this per cent. of profit, and evade the law by calling their capital their cost, when they have "watered" their stock until their capital represents two or three times their cost. One of these roads has officially reported its cost to be half more per mile than that of the Hudson River Railroad! Such a statement refutes itself, and explodes the pretext that the roads cannot do a profitable business at legal rates.

If the companies that run and conduct our City railroads and omnibuses could be made to understand that their real interest lies in accommodating and pleasing the public, instead of cheating, and crowding and imposing upon them, they would do a much better business, and stand on a much better footing. But if they persist in the practice they have been indulging in for some years past, and depend on their power to force the public into acquiescence, they must not be surprised some day to find the tables turned on them somewhat disastrously.

ANOTHER TUMBLE TO THE CONFEDERATE CREDIT.—The European news, received last evening by way of Cape Race, shows that the rebel loan in London has had another tumble, having been quoted as low as 57. On the news of McCLELLAN'S nomination the quotation was 72.

A Characteristic Trick.

The managers of the Copperhead party in this State have forwarded McCLELLAN tickets to the army indorsed Union Soldiers' Vote. The object of this deception is to lead soldiers to suppose they are voting the regular Union ticket, while actually voting for the Chicago Cessationist. The fact that they are compelled to resort to such a trick shows the desperate straits to which they are reduced.

Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The repetition of "Il Trovatore" on Monday night, was witnessed by a good audience, and the performance was generally excellent. If it lacked the auditorial enthusiasm of the first night it deserved it more.

A cotemporary recently threw out a few remarks about the sickness of Mr. MARETZEK'S artists, intimating that a good manager should have avoided these troubles. The empressario, after asserting the indisposition of Signor MAXIMILIANI, &c., thus pleasantly discusses the subject:

> "For the rest, let me modestly confess that I know not how to act. It has been the study of my life to 'manage' in just the way your critic suggests. I can conceive of no greater triumph for an empressario, than to be able to say that he has abolished all excuses for disappointing the public. To do away with colds, and deny to the throat its too facile hoarseness, would indeed be a meritous achievement. The squaring of the circle, the transmutation of metals, the distillation of the waters of eternal life, even the discovery of perpetual motion itself, were nothing to it. But, alas, there is a homely proverb which says you may bring a horse to the water, but you cannot make him drink, and—forgive the feeble pun—you may take a hoarse singer to the stage, but you cannot make him sing. I have in my memory at this moment a little illustrative incident. A refractory tenor, during one of my Cuban trips, concluded that it was desirable to be sick. The weather was fine, and the volantes presented unusual charms. It was despotic, perhaps, and decidedly ungallant; but the tenor was arrested by the authorities. His name had been announced on the bills, and that was their justification. Imagine the supreme relief that this event occasioned me. There was to be no disappointment. I had at last reached the blessed land where colds and hoarseness were ignored. The object of my life was accomplished. I had found the Atlantis of a managerial desire, and was never to be unhappy again. The evening came. Precisely at the appointed hour my tenor was delivered to me, guarded by four armed soldiers. The stage was before him, their bayonets behind. In the dress circle was the dignitary who had caged the unwilling singer. A savage glare was directed to the scene as the culprit made his entry, and then the audience listened. They are listening yet, for that resolute man refused to open his mouth. The stream was there, you perceive, but he would not drink.
>
> And should your critic know any way by which he can be made to do so, I shall feel under eternal obligations to him if he would impart it to me. The only plan that has worked well with me, so far, is the simple but expensive one of keeping a large company, so that if one singer is sick, or only pretends to be sick, another singer can instantly be put in his place. If, when this is done, the writers of the New-York press would kindly say something of the substitute, they may rest assured that it will not only benefit him but punish the absentee. In the absence of an epidemic, involving the throats and noses of my entire company, it is impossible for me to disappoint the public, in the worst sense of the word—namely, by a change of opera. When an artist is really sick his services are superfluous to the audience and the manager. It is best that some one else should take his place. When he only pretends to be sick, you may rest assured that I will not attempt to protect him from the just severity of the press, or lend my name to the smallest excuse for his non-appearance.
>
> Yours very truly, MAX MARETZEK.

Walter Savage Lander.

WALTER SAVAGE LANDOR, whose death at his villa near Florence, on the 17th of last month, has just been announced by the last European arrivals, was about the sole remaining literary man whose career as an author dates from the last century. He was born in 1775. His first book, a volume of "Poems," was published in 1795, when young LANDOR, the eldest son of wealthy parents, of the old English squirearchy, had declined, with characteristic independence, the military and legal professions for which his father successively intended him, and started on a life of freedom and literature. Though diversified by many incidental changes, this programme he steadily adhered to through the long term of nearly 90 years, and of more pronounced individuality than any of his cotemporaries, on succeeding to the family estates in Warwickshire, in the early part of this century, the routine life and narrow aims of a "large acred man" could not long confine the restlessness of his spirit. Before many years were over he had become disgusted with his ungrateful tenants, dissatisfied with his neighbors, and out of sorts generally with the rural world. The resolution to sell the property that had belonged to the LANDORS for seven hundred years, was soon taken and acted on. In 1808, he stood clear of all such trammels, and rushed with ardor into the contest then waging by the patriotic Spaniards against the Napoleonic lust of conquest and universal dominion. His participation in this struggle occupied him until the pacification of Europe in 1815, when he purchased the mansion and estates near Florence, where the greatest part of his life has since been spent. As a writer he flowered late. At his residence in Italy commences the period of his greatest literary productiveness. His noblest and most original work, Imaginary Conversations of Literary Men and Statesmen, was brought out in London, in two series, in 1824–29, and was followed by a succession of other books, partly of the same character, as Pericles and Aspasia, (with a remarkable dedication to Gen. JACKSON, omitted in the American reprint.) The Pentameron, &c.,—partly poetical, as Gebir, Count Julian, &c., and partly personal and political, springing from the intense and highly wrought feeling that LANDOR exhibited toward every object that excited his love or his hate, and between the two passions, there was no middle-ground. Though spending most of his time in Italy, he kept up a home at Bath. Some of his appearances in England do not redound to his credit, and must be attributed to the perversion rather than the decay of his faculties, arising from extreme age. Mr. LANDOR married in 1811 a lady of Swiss extraction. He leaves a family of three sons and one daughter, to whom he some time ago made over the bulk of his fortune, reserving but little for himself. He presented the copyright of his works to MOXON, the publisher, by whom they were brought out in ten volumes, royal 8vo., 1847.

There is a native vigor, energy and fire in all that LANDOR wrote that must make his name an enduring one in the roll of English classics. His poetry was accused of obscurity and want of human interest, and is little known to readers of the present day. The shape in which he clothed the rich results of his reading and observation—that of imaginary dialogues or conversation, may seem forced and unnatural to one who possessed so ably the dramatic temperament; but the weightiness of their matter, the insight they shew into the history, literature, politics, manner, and modes of thinking of past ages, will always make them be numbered among the choicest volumes of the student's library. Mr. LANDOR'S scholarship was of the highest quality. His Latin verse is among the best written by Englishmen in modern days, and in Italian literature he was preëminent.

GOVERNOR SEYMOUR AND BENEDICT ARNOLD.—The editorial article which recently appeared in the TIMES, contrasting the similarity between the sentiments enunciated by Gov. SEYMOUR in his speech at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and those put forth by BENEDICT ARNOLD in his proclamation to the people of the United States in 1780, has been issued in the form of a campaign document, and may be procured of the American News Company, No. 119 Nassau-street, or of D. S. HOLMES, No. 67 Fourth-street, Williamsburgh. Price ten cents a hundred.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

GEN. SHERMAN'S OFFICIAL REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Gen. SHERMAN'S official report of the Atlanta campaign is published in the official Army and Navy Gazette of this week. It is dated Sept. 15, and fills twenty columns of that paper. He estimates the enemy's strength to have been between forty-five thousand and fifty thousand infantry and artillery and ten thousand cavalry. Gen. SHERMAN says that he maintained about the same strength during the campaign; the number of men joining from furlough and hospitals about compensating for loss in battle and from sickness.

The report is composed in Gen. SHERMAN'S terse and trenchant style, and forms a most interesting history of perhaps the most brilliant and complete campaign of the war. He terminates his recital with the following deserved tribute to his subordinate commands:

> "My three armies in the field were commanded by able officers, my equals in rank and experience—Maj.-Gens. GEO. H. THOMAS, J. M. SCHOFIELD and O. O. HOWARD. With such commanders I had only to indicate the object desired, and they accomplished it. I cannot over-estimate their services to the country; and must express my deep and heartfelt thanks that, coming together from different fields, with different interests, they have coöperated with a harmony that has been productive of the greatest amount of success and good feeling. A more harmonious army does not exist."

THE STATE ELECTIONS.

The news of the immense Union majorities in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana is received here with great enthusiasm. Union men were everywhere jubilant; the Democracy are nowhere to be seen.

THE DRAFT IN KENTUCKY.

A delegation from Kentucky, consisting of Hons. GEORGE H. YEAMAN, W. P. D. RUSH, and others, have called upon the President to-day respecting the draft in their State. From their statements it appears that by reason of enlistment of Southern sympathizers from Kentucky into the Southern army, and enlistment of Kentucky negroes in the regiments of other States, the original enrollment upon which the present draft was founded would largely and improperly increase the burden resting upon the loyal citizens of that State. The Provost-Marshal-General, to whom the matter was referred, decided as follows: That the enrollments of that State shall be corrected by deducting therefrom the names of all non-residents and persons who have been conscripted into the Confederate service, and also all negroes who have gone to other States or enlisted in other States in Federal service. And after the rolls are thus corrected the quotas heretofore assigned to various subdistricts are to be correspondingly reduced. Gen. FRY'S official letter will be published in full in a few days.

THE NEW-YORK STATE ELECTION.

Prominent Democratic politicians, while claiming the State of New-York for McCLELLAN, concede that Mr. FENTON'S election is a foregone conclusion, not only on account of his personal popularity, but because of the great opposition to SEYMOUR among the soldiers, and the disgust excited in his own party by the trick through which he secured his renomination at Albany. It was arranged that the nomination should be tendered to SEYMOUR, as a compliment, but to be peremptorily declined. This, however, he forgot to do, and the convention were obliged to swallow him volens volens.

The votes of the soldiers in the Campbell General Hospital in this city, were taken for Governor, with the following result:

Fenton 306
Seymour 57

EXEMPT FROM DISMISSAL.

The following officers having made satisfactory defences to charges preferred against them, are by order of the Secretary of War exempt from dismissal from the service of the United States: Captain Oliver Cotter, Fifth New-York Heavy Artillery; Lieutenant D. R. Disbrow, First New-York Cavalry; First Lieutenant J. R. Hoff, Ninth New-York Heavy Artillery; First Lieutenant John Tiff, Ninth New-York Heavy Artillery; Chaplain David Trueman, First Virginia Veteran Cavalry; Major John A. G. Barker, Additional Paymaster, U. S. Army; Captain W. H. French, Commissary Subsistence of Volunteers; Captain D. H. Veech, Commissary Subsistence of Volunteers; First Lieutenant William J. Parish, Ninth New-York Heavy Artillery.

DEATHS OF NEW-YORK SOLDIERS.

The following deaths of soldiers are reported yesterday at the several hospitals in this city: August Milton, Co. H, Fifteenth New-York Heavy Artillery; William Waldmyer, Co. B, Sixty-first Pennsylvania Volunteers; Sergeant James Girling, Co. A, Seventh New-York Heavy Artillery; Henry G. Wall, Co. K, One Hundred and Ninth New-York; Augustus Ball, Co. B, Seventeenth Vermont; Calvin L. Townes, Co. M, First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery.

THE NEW-YORK STATE AGENT.

The New-York State Agent in this city, and his assistant, have for some time past been engaged in circulating Copperhead documents and votes in the army, instead of attending to the Sanitary condition of New-York soldiers, the object for which they are originally sent, and to support which the State Legislature has made such munificent appropriations.

Since Secretary STANTON has issued his order providing as impartially, for the distribution of votes, and the exercise of the elective franchise in the army, it entirely removes the necessity for Governor SEYMOUR'S appointees, to neglect their legitimate business for electioneering purposes.

FIRE ALARM TELEGRAPH.

The contractors who have been putting up a fire alarm telegraph in this city, upon a new and improved system, to-day turned over the apparatus and fixtures to the Mayor and Fire Commissioners. Mr. A. B. TALCOTT, who has been so long and popularly connected with the American Telegraph Company, will be the Superintendent under the new arrangement.

DEATHS OF NEW YORK SOLDIERS REPORTED TO-DAY.

John Haus, Company C, Seventh Infantry; Fred. Brenner, Company C, Fifteen Artillery; Wellis Finton, Company C, Fiftieth Engineers; Francis Bagley, Company F, Fifty-first Infantry; Joseph W. Critchet, Company A, One Hundred and Thirty-first Infantry; Francis Heller, Company E, Seventh Infantry.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

NOT A NAVY VESSEL.

The Aphrodite, wrecked off the coast of North Carolina, is not a naval vessel.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE.

Ballots were to-day cast at the various hospitals and military stations in this city and vicinity, by the soldiers of Pennsylvania and Ohio. It is represented that there were comparatively few Democratic votes polled, the others being for the opposing tickets.

APPOINTED AN ENSIGN.

EDWIN M. PRATT, of Boston, has been appointed an Ensign in the navy, and ordered to report to the frigate San Jacinto, at Portsmouth, N. H.

THE LATE RISE IN THE CITY RAILROAD FARES.—The late rise in the City Railroad fares yesterday has given anything but satisfaction, and citizens appear astonished at the six cent system. There is one line, however, it is satisfactory to state, that has made no change, which is the Eighth-avenue. GEORGE LAW, Esq., the head of that company, considers that the present is not the time for doing so, and in his considerateness for the public, although it might bring in some hundred dollars extra weekly, has not yet done so. This the reporters of the press were witnesses of last evening when returning from their avocations.

Guerrillas in Kentucky.

CINCINNATI, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

An attack on a passenger train of the Kentucky Central Railroad was made by twenty-five guerrillas midway between Paris and Lexington. The engine was thrown from the track, the cars were burned, $2,700 were taken from Adams' Express Company, and all the passengers were robbed.

THE INVASION OF MISSOURI.

The Demonstrations Against Jefferson City a Feint.

THE REBELS MOVING WESTWARD

Gen. Pleasanton in Pursuit With 8,000 Cavalry.

DESTRUCTION OF RAILROAD BRIDGES.

St. Louis, Monday, Oct. 10.

From the Democrat's Jefferson City correspondence it seems that the rebel demonstration on that place on the 7th was merely to occupy our forces while the enemy's main body crossed the Osage River. After feeling our fortifications and finding them strong, they passed westward during the night, some twenty thousand strong, with sixteen to twenty-five cannon' and a long train of wagons.

Gen. Pleasonton arrived on the morning of the 8th and assumed command, and in the afternoon followed the rebels with about 8,000 cavalry.

At night reports reached Jefferson that we had engaged Price's rear, while Gen. Curtis, coming from Kansas, was fighting their front.

The Democrat's Jefferson City dispatch to-night says:

A courier just arrived from California, twenty-five miles west, brings information that our cavalry were skirmishing nearly all day yesterday.

In the afternoon the rebels entered California, burned the railroad depot and a train of cars.

Gen. Price has issued a proclamation stating that he had come into the State intending to remain. He desired to make friends, not enemies, and the depredations he had committed were a military necessity.

About 4 o'clock our forces placed a battery outside of California, and drove the rebels out. We killed and wounded and captured over one hundred. Our loss was only a few wounded.

The rebels have torn up about a mile of the railroad track on the east side of California, and it is also torn up in several places on this side.

The rebel Col. Standewaite is reported to have been at Tipton last night with five thousand men, moving toward Booneville.

The rebel Major Bowie and the rebel Lieutenant Key have been killed, and Col. Shanks mortally wounded.

Col. Fletcher, with fifteen men, arrived here from Rolla to-night, and reports 1,500 men repairing the southwest branch of the railroad; that the telegraph will be in working order to-morrow; that the road will be open from Rolla to Moselle the day after, and that all is now snug at Rolla.

The bridge and water-tank at Scott's, eight miles west of Jefferson City, have been burned by the rebels; also the railroad depot at Lookout, a few miles beyond.

LATER.

St. Louis, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Intelligence has been received at headquarters that Price's army went from California to Booneville, Cooper County, yesterday, and Shelby sent 2,000 cavalry across the Missouri River at that point.

Gen. Fisk has gone to Lexington to take command there.

Gen. Sanborn is still pursuing the enemy.

Reports were extensively circulated, to day, that Magruder, with 5,000 rebel infantry, had entered Southeast Missouri and occupied Fredericktown, but they prove to be unfounded.

Business is suspended at St. Joseph, the citizens having been called to arms by Gen. Fisk, in anticipation of a visit from Price.

Tobacco is unchanged. Cotton quiet; receipts, 66 bales. Flour and Wheat heavy and lower. Corn firm. Oats, 1c. higher.

Letter from Senor M. Doblado.

To the Editor of the Courier des Etats Unis:

Sir: Referring to Mexican affairs, in yesterday's number of your daily paper, you speak of me in terms so highly offensive to my honor that I feel compelled, in self-defence, to trouble you again for the publication of a few lines.

I repeat once more that I never did solicit anything at all of the so-called Imperial Government of Mexico, nor do I intend returning there to submit to it. He who so states falsely affirms that I have done so.

It is a most infamous calumny to insist upon saying that I pretended to make an arrangement with the invaders to save my private property. What I possess in the State of Guanajuato has been acquired just as legally as any property bought by any one else, politics having nothing to do with my fortune, which has been gotten by honest labor. For that very reason I need ask no guarantee at all of the so-called Imperial Government. My property, like every other persons, is guaranteed by the civil laws, in vigor in Mexico long before the country was invaded. Of all the national property sold in Mexico, I bought but one single house, and that was paid for according to the regulations of the laws of reform, enacted there by the legitimate Government of my country. The French intervention has never dared to derogate them, in spite of the exigencies of the clergy and traitors, because every one knows that, owing to them, the French residing in Mexico, have become possessors of more than one-third of the so-called Church properties.

Therefore that person asserts what is untrue who persists in affirming that I have endeavored to enter into any kind of arrangement with the usurper of Mexico to save my fortune, and I defy any one to show my signature affixed to any document of the kind.

I did pretend to save my fortune legally acquired, but by the only means honorable to a Mexican in these circumstances, viz.: helping to keep up the war against the usurper, the French and traitors, and repelling force by force to the utmost of my power. I think, by so doing, I have done my duty as a Mexican. I emigrated to this country after the fate of war had proved adverse to me, and after losing nearly all my soldiers.

As to my object in coming to this country, allow me to say I do not consider myself bound to confide it to any one, and much less to writers who judge so lightly of persons whose present misfortune entitles them to the respect of all.

I know perhaps better than any one else the little or no value of the guarantees the usurper's government might tender me, for I have not so soon forgotten the worth of Mr. Saligny's signature at the preliminaries of La Soledad. Your servant,

M. DOBLADO.

From Newbern.

New-York, Monday, Oct. 10.

An arrival from Newbern brings the following Capt. J. W. Denney, the popular Provost-Marshal of Newbern, arrived here yesterday in the Dudley Buck, in charge of his regiment, the Twenty-fifth Massachusetts, whose term of service has expired. The regiment lay at quarantine five days, there having been two cases of yellow fever on board since her departure from Morehead City. Four new cases developed on her passage, who are now on the hospital ship.

James W. Bryant, an eminent lawyer of Newbern, is among the recent victims to the fever; also his wife and daughter. Business of all kinds is suspended in Newbern. Mr. Joy, editor of the Newbern Times, is among the passengers, having suspended the publication of his paper, while the fever prevails. The army thus far has escaped the disease, which is confined to the city.

Political Conventions.

Boston, Tuesday, Oct. 11.

The Republican Convention in the Fourth District to-day nominated Samuel Hooper for reëlection to Congress, and J. M. S. Williams, of Cambridge, for presidential elector.

Burlington, Vt., Tuesday, Oct. 11.

The Union Convention held here to-day nominated the following electoral ticket: For electors at large, Hon. Daniel Kellogg and Hon. A. L. Catlin. For District electors, 1st, G. M. Dorr; 2d District, Ryland Flosser; 3d, James W. Simpson. About 2,000 delegates were present. Gen. Richard Busteed and Hon. R. J. Andrews, of New-York, were among the speakers.

The War Eagles Express Their Joy Over the Result—The Copperheads Show Disgust.

Upon hearing the result of the elections yesterday, the Union War Eagles, headed by the Grand Commander, James M. Thomson, marched through the streets from Twenty-third-street to Printing-house-square, with music and banners, carrying a transparency with the motto:

"Pensylvania good for 20,000.
How are you Little Mac?"

Opposite the offices of the Tribune and Times quite a crowd had collected to hear the returns, and a large portion of them being Copperheads, to whom the news was extremely unsatisfactory, they vented their spleen by an attack upon the War Eagles, destroying the transparency and attempting to disperse the procession. The War Eagles rallied and drove the advocates of peace and free speech from the ground, the Copperheads going up Chatham-street in search of a "cessation of hostilities."

The One Hundred Day Men.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT FROM MR. LINCOLN.

Gov. Yates, of Illinois, has received the following:

War Department, Washington, Oct. 7.

To the Governor of Illinois:

The following order has been made by the President, and the Adjutant-General is preparing certificates for the officers and soldiers of your State, which will be forwarded to you for distribution.

(Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

Executive Mansion,
Washington City, Oct. 1, 1864.

The special Executive orders returning thanks to volunteers for one hundred days from the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin. The term of one hundred days for which volunteers from the States of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin volunteered under the call of their respective Governors in the months of May and June, to aid the recent campaign of Gen. Sherman, having expired, the President directs an official acknowledgment to be made of their patriotic service. It was their good fortune to render effective service in the brilliant operations in the Southwest, and to contribute to the victories of the national arms over the rebel forces in Georgia under command of Johnson and Hood. On all occasions and in every service to which they were assigned, their duty as patriotic volunteers was performed with alacrity and courage, for which they are entitled to, and are hereby tendered, the national thanks, through the Governors of their respective States.

The Secretary of War is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the Governors of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin, and to cause a certificate of their honorable services to be delivered to the officers and soldiers of the States above named who recently served in the military force of the United States as volunteers for one hundred days.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

THE LATE EDMUND M. YOUNG.

New-York, Oct. 11, 1864.

The sudden death of this gentleman has caused universal sorrow in the community, wherever he was known. In the prime of life, the head of one of the largest and most successful firms in Cliff st., a gentleman of cultivated mind, refined tastes, amiable and attractive manners, and extensive usefulness, he was looked up to as a guide and example; and his memory will be cherished by a wide circle of friends, by whom he was regarded with sentiments of high esteem, confidence and affection. The following are the proceedings on the occasion, of the Board of the Mechanics' Bank, of which he was a Director:

At a special meeting of the Board of the Mechanics' Bank, called this day, in consequence of the death of Edmund M. Young, one of the Directors, it was on motion unanimously resolved:

1. That this board, moved by sincere grief for the loss of our late honored associate Edmund M. Young, desire to record our high respect for his virtues and profound sorrow for his sudden removal from among us, in the fullness of his activity and usefulness.

2. That, while we gratefully remember his eminently able and faithful services to this institution, and the constant courtesy of his intercourse with us, we are not less impressed with sentiments of high esteem for the exemplary industry and high principles of fairness and integrity which characterized him as a merchant, as well as the dignity, intelligence and kindness of heart which marked his career in all the relations of life, which gained for him a high place in the esteem of this community, and will render his memory and example ever precious to his family and his friends.

3. That, in common with his numerous friends, we tender our respectful sympathy to his bereaved family, directing that a copy of these resolutions be sent to them, and also to the daily papers for publication, and that we will attend his funeral, at 3½ o'clock to-morrow.

Veterans of the National Guard.—The members of this Association are requested to attend the funeral of their late associate, EDMUND M. YOUNG, on Wednesday, at 3½ P. M., from Trinity Church. By order

W. R. VERMILYE, Colonel.

E. R. Tremain, Adjutant.

AN EXTRAORDINARY RESTORATION OF SIGHT.
I, Lawrence Grenna, of No. 188 East 36th-st., New-York City, have been suffering from blindness of the left eye for a considerable period. The eye was continually in a state of great inflammation, from which the good eye became affected, and, indeed, my general health was greatly injured by it. Hearing of Dr Von Eisenberg's great reputation, and as everyone said mine was a hopeless case, I called on the Doctor, who, after examining me, undertook my case, and within a fortnight I found myself almost completely cured. It is now a month since I placed myself under Dr. Von Eisenberg's treatment. I am happy to be able to state that the inflammation is entirely gone, so that I see perfectly with both eyes, added to which I am in good health, a blessing I have not enjoyed since I was blind. I do conscientiously and gratefully swear to the above statement, in a Court of Justice at the City Hall of the City of New-York, the 10th day of October, 1864.

ÆSTHETICO--NEURALGCION.
NEW INVENTION
FOR THE CURE
OF THE MOST COMPLICATED
DISEASES OF THE ORGANS OF SIGHT,
HEARING,
AS WELL AS CHRONIC CATARRH,
DISEASED THROAT,
AND ANY DISEASE WHERE THE MUCOUS MEMBRANE IS DESTROYED OR IMPAIRED.
As the meaning of the name given by Dr. VON EISENBERG to his new Invention may not be easily comprehended, we (the New-York Evening Express) give the following explanation of its uses for the better understanding of the general sufferer:
ÆSTHETICO-NEURALGICON
is derived from the Greek word Aisoptikos, which in its literal acceptation, signifies pertaining to the senses the theory or philosophy of tastes, the science of sensations, or that which explains the cause of mental pain or pleasure. Neuralgicon is a compound of the two Greek words, neuron, a nerve, and logas, a discourse with the sufferer. The meaning conveyed by the term is, that it is an instrument or machine devised on philosophical principles with a thorough knowledge of the nervous system.
In describing the matter more at length to show its uses, that it might be better understood by the general sufferer, we give a simpler explanation. The nervous system is the source of many diseases.
All physicians admit this, and all profess at least to be able to apply a remedy. The Allopathic, Homœopathic and Hydropathic, by prescribing opiates, anodynes, &c., may, and do, alleviate the pain arising from impaired or diseased nerves, but this does not restore the nerve. It is only temporary relief—a relief, too, to some one nerve at the expense of the entire system. The Æsthetico-Neuralgicon of Dr. VON EISENBERG not merely allays the irritation, but restores the nerve to its normal condition. The Doctor's theory is, that each nerve has a specific office, and has its own peculiar susceptibility. Thus, for example, the nerve of vision is insensible to touch, and, on the other hand, the nerve of touch is insensible to light, and so on through the whole system. The great excellence of this æsthetical instrument is, that it can be applied not on guess-work principles, which are no principles at all, but that it can be applied with accuracy and certainty to any nerve or nerves that are weakened or impaired, to the different nerves of motion, or sensation, to the eye, the ear, or the touch, as in paralysis.
To those, therefore, who are in any way afflicted with loss of sight or hearing, with catarrh, bronchitis, chest or lung diseases, we earnestly suggest a visit to the consulting apartments of Dr. VON EISENBERG. There he will be speedily made to know the possibility of a cure in even complicated cases, and thus be encouraged to proceed until he is discharged thoroughly renovated and cured.
The reader, on perusing what we have here presented him, touching the beauty, complexity, costliness, touching the various uses to which the Aesthetico-Neuralgicon can be applied, may be induced to believe that in the warmth of our commendations we have exceeded the sober truth as to its utility; but we know we have not exceeded the limits of common sense in our description. We care not how prejudiced any one may be against it: he cannot, when it is thoroughly explained to him—and that the inventor is prepared to do at any time to those who call upon him—but be convinced it is all that is claimed for it, namely, the most perfect mechanical contrivance for the exhibition of spiritualized and etherealized medical preparations now in existence. He will even confess, if he be justly minded, that in many respects it is destined to bring about an entire revolution in certain departments of science, and that it is what its inventor, with reason, holds an apparatus that will do more to mitigate human suffering than anything that, in all the past to this time, has been afforded to the world.—New-York Evening Express, Sept, 28, 1864.
NEW TESTIMONIALS.
Catarrh Cured.
Lincoln Hospital, Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.
I have been for several years past afflicted with chronic dry catarrh, which a year ago became so bad that my hearing threatened to leave me altogether. My throat became greatly affected. There was a constant roaring in my head, which, with the other symptoms, was always greatly aggravated by the slightest "cold." Dr. Von Eisenberg commenced treating me a year ago, and has continued to treat me at long intervals since. I am happy to state that the treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg has produced a constant improvement, so that my hearing is almost perfectly restored. My nostrils are free from inflammation, and my general health is so much improved that I look for its permanent restoration, and that speedily, as a fixed fact. I do cheerfully recommend all persons suffering from catarrhal affections to apply to Dr. Von Eisenberg for treatment, feeling assured that with proper opportunity he will effect a cure.
JAMES T. FERRIE, Captain U. S. A.
I was completely deaf for several years, and hearing of Dr. Von Eisenberg's great reputation in restoring the hearing, I called on him, and in one operation, to my great astonishment and excessive pleasure, I now hear perfectly well. I came into the Doctor perfectly deaf, and hear as I never expected to do. This skill is unrivaled.
CHARLES CHAPPELL,
Washington Market.
New-York, Oct. 5, 1864.
SIGHT RESTORED.
I, Lawrence Grenner, of No. 188 East 36th-st., New-York City:—Have been suffering from blindness of the left eye for a considerable period. The eye was continually in a state of great inflammation, which not only caused me intense suffering, but materially affected my general health. Hearing of Dr. VON EISENBERG'S great reputation, and as every one said my case was hopeless, I called on the Doctor, who, after having examined me, undertook my case, and within a fortnight I found myself almost completely cured. It is now a month since I placed myself under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S care. I am happy to be able to state that the inflammation is entirely gone; that I see perfectly well with both eyes; added to which I at present am in good health—a blessing I have not enjoyed since I was blind.
Oct. 5, 1864.
The ÆSTHETICO-NEURALGICON is now on exhibition at Dr. VON EISENBERG'S Consulting Rooms, No. 816 BROADWAY, near 12th-st.

PROPOSALS FOR LOAN.

FIVE-TWENTY BONDS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Oct. 1, 1864.

SEALED OFFERS will be received at this Department, under the act of Congress, approved June 30, 1864, until the noon of Friday, the 14th instant, for bonds of the United States, to the amount of forty millions of dollars. The bonds offered will bear an interest of six per centum, payable semi-annually, in coin, on the first days of May and November, and will be redeemable at the pleasure of the Government, after five years, and payable twenty years from Nov. 1, 1864.

Each offer must be for fifty or some multiple of fifty dollars, and must state the sum including premium offered for each hundred dollars, or for fifty when the offer is for no more than fifty. Two per cent. of the principal (excluding premium) of the whole amount bid for, by each bidder, must be deposited, as a guaranty for the payment of subscriptions if accepted, with the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, or with the Assistant Treasurer at New York, Boston, Philadelphia or St. Louis, or with the designated Depositary at Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago, Detroit or Buffalo, or with any National Deposit Bank which may consent to transact the business without charge, for which deposits duplicate certificates will be issued to the depositors by the officer or bank receiving them—the originals of which must be forwarded, with the offers, to this Department. All deposits should be made in time for the certificates with the offers to reach Washington not later than the morning of Oct. 14, as aforesaid. No offer, not accompanied by its proper certificate of deposit, will be considered.

The Coupon and Registered Bonds, issued under this proposal, will be of the denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. Registered Bonds of $5,000 and $10,000 will be issued if required.

All offers received will be opened on Friday, Oct 14. The awards will be made by the Secretary to the highest offerers, and notice of acceptance or declination will be immediately given to the respective offerers. In cases of acceptance, bonds of the description and denomination preferred will be sent to the subscribers, at the cost of the Department, on final payment of installments. The deposit of two per cent. will be reckoned in the last installments paid by successful offerers, and will be immediately returned to those whose offers may not be accepted.

The amount of accepted offers must be deposited with the Treasurer, officer or bank authorized to act under this notice, on advice of the acceptance of offers, as follows: One-half on the 20th October, and the balance, including the premium and original two per cent. deposit, on the 31st October.

The bonds will bear interest from Nov. 1. Interest on deposits, from their date to Nov. 1, will be paid by the Government in coin.

One-half of the first installment, or twenty-five per cent. of accepted offers, may be paid, with accrued interest to Oct. 14, in United States "Certificates of Indebtedness," but such certificates will be received in part payment of the first installment only.

Offers under this notice should be indorsed "Offer for Loan," and addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury. The right to decline all offers not considered advantageous to the Government is reserved by the Secretary.
W. P. FESSENDEN,
Secretary of the Treasury.

FINANCIAL.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

The Secretary of the Treasury gives notice that subscriptions will be received for Coupon Treasury Notes payable three years from Aug. 15, 1864, with semi-annual interest at the rate of seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum,—principal and interest both to be paid in lawful money.

These notes will be convertible at the option of the holder at maturity, into six per cent. gold-bearing bonds, payable not less than five nor more than twenty years from their date, as the Government may elect. They will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000, and all subscriptions must be for fifty dollars, or some multiple of fifty dollars.

As the notes draw interest from August 15, persons making deposits subsequent to that date must pay the interest accrued from date of note to date of deposit.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES OF THIS LOAN.

IT IS A NATIONAL SAVINGS BANK, offering a higher rate of interest than any other, and the best security. Any savings bank which pays its depositors in United States notes considers that it is paying in the best circulating medium of the country, and it cannot pay in anything better, for its own assets are either in Government securities or in notes or bonds payable in Government paper.

CONVERTIBLE INTO A SIX PER CENT. 5-20 GOLD BOND.

In addition to the very liberal interest on the notes for three years, this privilege of conversion is now worth about three per cent. per annum, for the current rate for 5-20 Bonds is not less than nine per cent. premium, and before the war the premium on six per cent. U. S. Stocks was over twenty per cent. It will be seen that the actual profit on this loan, at the present market rate, is not less than ten per cent. per annum.

ITS EXEMPTION FROM STATE OR MUNICIPAL TAXATION.

But aside from all the advantages we have enumerated, a special act of Congress exempts all bonds and Treasury notes from local taxation. On the average, this exemption is worth about two per cent. per annum, according to the rate of taxation in various parts of the country.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as those issued by the Government. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities, only is pledged for payment, while the whole property of the country is held to secure the discharge of all the obligations of the United States.

SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE RECEIVED BY THE

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 61 Franklin-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or less of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 61 Franklin-st. Call, send, or write.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. Young man, are you subject to that soul and body destroying disease, secret habits? Dr. POWERS' Invigorating Essence is a never-failing cure. Sold by WALTER POWERS, M. D., No. 61 Franklin-st., between Broadway and Elm-st., New-York.

CAUTION TO MARRIED AND SINGLE LADIES.—DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, deems it his duty to caution ladies, that his scientific mode of treatment in all cases of irregularity or suppression, is the only one at once healthy and certain in all cases, however complicated. He is consulted with the strictest confidence.

DR. A. M. MAURICEAU is the author of "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health and circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family; a perusal of which will convince any lady of his thorough knowledge of her complaints. Every lady who has it is secure from danger and imposition. Price $1. Sold at No. 1 Vesey-st., No. 18 Ann-st.; also, at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., or sent by mail, by addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City.

COBBETT can be consulted with the most honorable confidence on private diseases at his conveniently-arranged suite of offices, No. 20 Centre-st., between Chambers and Reade sts., having a private entrance at No. 6 City Hall-place. From Dr. C. being one of the oldest, and probably the only qualified physician and surgeon in this City who makes diseases of the genitourinary organs a specialty, he is thus enabled to guarantee speedy and permanent cures, or make no charge. Strictures of the urethra, seminal weakness nervous and general debility treated on the most scientific principles. N. B.—See Dr. C.'s diplomas, in his office, as member of the New-York University Medical College, and College of Surgeons, London. Office hours, 9 A. M. to 8½ P. M.

Strictures of the urethra and seminal weakness, brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. The victims of misplaced confidence, who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured or no charge made.

ADVICE TO MARRIED LADIES, who require a safe and certain remedy for removing obstructions, from whatever cause. Can rely upon the celebrated INFALLIBLE FRENCH FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS. Expressly for obstinate cases. Warranted as represented in every respect, or the price will be refunded. ☞ Beware of imitations. Purchase directly of Dr. POWERS, 61 Franklin-st. N. Y.

THOUSANDS ARE DISAPPOINTED OF a cure by not calling on Dr. WEST at first. His remedies are mild and effective in their operations, require no restraint in diet, loss of time or hindrance in business; possessing the power of eradicating every symptom of the disease in the worst stages. One trial will convince the most skeptical of their surprising properties. Slight cases cured in two days, or prevented, if application is made in time. Office, No. 27 Duane-st., between Centre and Chatham

EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., EDITOR OF the SCALPEL, attends exclusively to operative surgery and the more obscure diseases of the pelvic viscera, stricture, hernia, hemorrhoids, varicocele and fistula. No. 42 5th-av., between 10th and 11th. sts. Office hours from 8 to 9, 1 to 3, and 7 to 9 evenings.

DR. WEST, FEMALE PHYSICIAN AND ACCOUCHER, No. 27 Duane-st., between Centre and Chatham, makes it his special practice to treat all female complaints with professional skill. His Monthly Tonic is a never-failing remedy. Relief certain in a few hours.

HUNDREDS ARE RUINED BEYOND REDEMPTION in this life by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first; he has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has cured no less than fifty thousand cases. His remedies are mild and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Dr. Hunter is in constant attendance from 8 in the morning till 9 at night, at his old office, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1834. Charges moderate and a cure guaranteed. Separate rooms, so that the patient sees no one but the Doctor himself. His wonderful medical discovery known as Dr. Hunter's Red Drops, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, and possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. One dollar will secure by return mail his medical work, 300 pages, 40 colored pictures. Worth all the others put together.

51ST NIGHT OF THE IMMENSE ENGAGEMENT OF MR. JOHN S. CLARKE.
Another and still greater hit.

The enthusiastic reception on Monday evening of the uproariously laughable one-act Comedy called LOVE IN LIVERY, induces the management to invite the SPECIAL ATTENTION of the public to Mr. CLARKE'S exquisitely comic personation of PAUL PATENT.

So unbounded was the merriment awakened that again and again the progress of the comedy was interrupted by CONTINUOUS PEALS OF LAUGHTER AND DELIGHT.

The contagion extended even to the stage, the artists being unable to refrain from joining in the GENERAL HILARITY.

It will be preceded as usual for the ninth time, by that most amusing of Shakespeare's creations, THE COMEDY OF ERRORS.

TWO DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Europa off Cape Race—The London Press on the Peace Party—Retirement of George Peabody—Scarcity of Employment in England—Decline in the Confederate Loan.

CAPE RACE, Monday, Oct. 10.

The steamship Europa, from Liverpool on the 1st via Queenstown on the 2d instant, passed this point, en route to Halifax and Boston, at 8 o'clock this (Monday) evening. Her dates are two days later than those already received, but her news is not of a very important character, her advices being mainly anticipated by the Jura at Quebec and the Hansa at New-York.

The British Government had determined to reduce the militia establishment about thirty per cent.

The Brazilian mails had arrived in England.

The Federal steamer Onward was cruising on the Brazilian coast in search of rebel vessels.

The crop of cotton in Brazil was much smaller than was expected.

Queen CHRISTIANA had arrived at Madrid, where she was well received.

Advices had been received from Japan via France. Two English vessels had been fired into by the batteries belonging to Prince CHOTEIN.

AMERICAN TOPICS.

The Morning Post, in an editorial on American affairs, remarks that it is certainly singular that the Peace party in the North has not been enabled to put forward a candidate especially pledged to pursue a peaceful policy. The fact is, however, that it cannot do so, and circumstances tend to confirm the apprehension, now almost unanimously entertained, that some time must elapse before the Northern populations will submit to the necessity of putting an end to the war.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The London Times comments as follows on the first announcement that the "Peace" branch of the Democracy had refused to support MCCLELLAN:

"The nomination of Gen. MCCLELLAN has turned out a mistake for half the party that supported the 'Chicago platform,' and the problem that now occupies the thousands whose anxiety is not to be on the right side, but on the strongest, is the calculation which will be the prevailing section. The division between the two parties is sharp and definite. The issue raised is peace opposed to war. That the position taken by the Democratic party, when it acted as one interest, was indefinite and illogical, we have more than once pointed out. But even with this defect it was possible the necessities of the time might have forced both sections into a common line of policy as to the war. It would be desirable to ascertain, through a convention of States, what is the real opinion of the hostilities entertained by the masses the war is exterminating and impoverishing. What we have heard as yet is mostly the enthusiasm of those who profit by the conflict. The war interest has long represented itself as the national interest. A convention called during an armistice might have thrown a light on several points well worth considering, instead of blindly fighting over them, and forgetting them in the heat of the conflict. This, as we understood it, was the object of the Peace Democrats. In the vigor with which they denounced the misconduct of the war they were not exceeded by the other section of the party; and it might well be anticipated that a large body of the people who believed the war was hopeless, as conducted, or hopeless in any case, might succeed in arresting the conflagration.

But the weakness of the combination has shown itself at the first movement. Gen. MCCLELLAN accepted the nomination, but in his letter of acceptance repudiated the peace section of his supporters, and knocked out several of the main "planks" of the party platform. * * * But such is the unhappy position of affairs that neither success nor disaster improves the prospects of peace. Both are reasons for continuing the war. As little hope is there in a transfer of the Government from its present possessors to the hands of the opposite party. The Republicans engage to maintain the war; the Democrats now give the same pledge. The waters of contention cover the land, and the ark of promise which was launched at Chicago has already broken up in the tempest. We now fear that any raft the friends of peace may try to construct will not be strong enough to live in the torrent which an extraordinary combination of events is turning so swiftly in one direction.

THE BLOCKADE.

From the London Times, Sept. 26.

The steamer Granadian, from Jamaica, 3d instant, and Bermuda on the 12th, reports that a blockade-runner was entering Bermuda on the last-mentioned date. She left at Bermuda the steamers Powerful and Hawk, and a new blockade-runner on her first trip, which had left Bermuda, but was compelled to put back, having encountered a hurricane and received damage. She was painted white and had two white funnels. The steamer Powerful was discharging, the captain and nine of her crew having died from yellow fever, and a new captain had been appointed.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The retirement of GEORGE PEABODY from city life took place on the 1st of October, in conformity with a long-expressed intention.

The Times' City Article remarks that it is certain no one has completed a business career which has commanded more universal respect from the commercial world. The business of the house, the prosperity of which has been uninterrupted, will be carried on henceforth by the two remaining partners, J. S. MORGAN and C. GOrch.

The dissolution of the British Parliament will take place next Easter, and the general election about three months afterward.

The Manchester Guardian publishes evidence that employment is becoming more scarce in the manufacturing districts, and there is continued depression and sensitiveness in financial and commercial circles. Numerous additional failures are reported in connection with the Leeds Banking Company and on the London Stock Exchange. The fortnightly settlement led to three suspensions among brokers. Included in the failures are A. GEE & Co., East India merchants, with liabilities of half a million sterling; EARLY & SMITH, export clothiers, of London, with liabilities of eighty thousand pounds sterling; and HULL and JONES, sugar brokers, at Liverpool, with half a million sterling each. The demands for discount has been very heavy, but the Bank rate of discount remains unchanged.

The Confederate Loan, on the 30th, fell to 57, but subsequently rallied, closing at 62@64.

FRANCE.

The weekly returns of the Bank of France show an increase in cash on hand of over two and a quarter millions francs.

The Bourse closed quiet, on the 30th, at 65f. 75c.

SPAIN.

The clamor of the public urges the settlement of the St. Domingo question by Spain, preserving only the towns of Santo Domingo, Samana and Puerta Plata, and abandoning the rest of the island.

CHINA.

THE CAPTURE OF NANKIN.

The following intelligence is taken from the Overland China Mail of the 12th of August:

"In our last issue we stated that preparations were being made for the successful attack of Nankin, and we have now to report that the city was taken by the Imperialists on the 19th ult. For many months past, in consequence of the almost unvaried success which had attended the operations of the Chinese army under the foreign leaders, the Taepings had evidently begun to lose heart, and the accounts received state that the chief of their "Coolie Kings" committed suicide when he heard that Col. GORDON was present before the walls of the city. We have already stated that the latter officer had, with the sanction of Gen. BROWN, gone to Nankin, for the purpose of making a survey of the Taeping defences. This, we believe, he did, going within fifty yards of the walls. We have not yet received full particulars of what followed from the attack upon Nankin, made upon GORDON's advice, as the Shanghai mail for Europe has not yet arrived in Hong Kong; but the likelihood is, that the mere terror of GORDON's name operated in promoting the capture of the city. The attack was made simultaneously by land and sea, the first actual entry being effected at or near the Taeping gate. Before night of the day on which the place was entered the rebels were completely surrounded near the centre of the city, but we cannot say whether many were killed. The CHUNG WANG, who escaped from Soo-chow, and from Chang-chow-foo, has again made his escape from Nankin. He is allowed to possess much military ability, and he evidently exercises discretion in difficult emergencies. It is unfortunate that on the present occasion this "fighting king," as he is called, should have eluded the besieging army with 3,000 of his troops. From such a force of rebels under such a leader, any amount of mischief may yet be anticipated, as the CHUNG WANG is both resolute and clever. We cannot reasonably doubt that this force of 3,000 men will form the nucleus of a fresh rebellion in other districts; but we presume that the experience that the Taepings have had of foreigners will render the old districts tolerably safe. The Taepings' lust for plunder is most of all to be feared; their education to brigandage during the last twelve years must have gone far to unfit them for the more sober habits of industry; and, though foreigners may have no more to fear from them, they may still continue to give serious trouble by remaining together in arms even in gangs of two or three thousand. The question now is, "What change the subjugation—so far as it goes—of the Taeping rebels will make in our relations with the country? We should naturally expect that it would lead to an increase of friendship and commercial advantages; but the Chinese, unfortunately, soon forget favors, and have no good equivalent in their language for the word gratitude. It will therefore be matter of considerable anxiety to watch the next turn that affairs may take. Should it prove that the rebellion is utterly put down, it is just possible that the Chinese authorities may take an early opportunity of assuming the iron mask in dealing with foreigners. On the other hand, Prince KUNG's Government may continue the policy which has been pursued ever since the murder of BOWLBY and BRABAZON was avenged, which has so far been a policy of conciliation.

Nominating Convention of the Citizens Association.

The nominating Convention of the Citizens Association met last evening at Clinton Hall, CHARLES TRACY, Esq., President, in the chair, and Messrs. STEWART and MCMULLEN, Secretaries. After some little routine business and the reading of several communications from different organizations, a motion was offered and carried, that in making nominations, the majority vote govern the convention. The question then arose as to whether the convention should nominate gentlemen who had been nominated by other organizations, or independent candidates only. After considerable discussion the whole matter was, on motion, laid on the table. The convention then went into nomination for candidate for City Judge. An informal vote was first taken, which resulted in favor of JAMES R. WHITING. When on motion JAMES R. WHITING was nominated for City Judge by acclamation. The convention then went into nomination for candidate for Sheriff. The result was as follows: Total vote cast 185, of which JOHN W. FARMER received 106; CHARLES A. SECOR, 69; scattering, 10. On motion JOHN W. FARMER was nominated for Sheriff by acclamation. The convention then went into nomination for candidate for District Attorney, which resulted as follows: Whole number of votes cast, 172, of which RICHARD O'GORMON received 72; JOHN SEDGWICK, 67; CHARLES TRACY, 24; scattering, 9. Mr. TRACY repeated what he had stated at a previous meeting that he could not accept the nomination. A second ballot was then ordered, which resulted as follows: Total vote cast, 174; of which RICHARD O'GORMAN received 95, JOHN SEDGWICK, 77; scattering, 2. Mr. RICHARD O'GORMAN was thereupon declared nominated as candidate for District-Attorney. The convention then went into ballot for candidate for County Clerk, when 143 votes were cast, of which J. W. LEVERIDGE received 86, and was declared nominated. The convention then went into ballot for candidate for Supervisor, which resulted in a large majority for WM. H. WEBB, and he was, on motion, nominated by acclimation. The convention then went into nomination for Coroners, which resulted in favor of Drs. J. W. GREENE, J. O'DONNELL, FRED. ROSEVELT and STEPHEN SMITH. After some other business the meeting adjourned.

McKeon County Convention.

The McKeon County Convention met last night at the Sinclair House, to nominate their share of the ticket, which, as per agreement with FERNANDO WOOD, consisted of the Sheriff, City Judge and the Coroner. The delegates were far from being harmonious, and considerable time was occupied in forming an organization. The convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Sheriff. There were three candidates—Judge MICHAEL CONNOLLY, BARNARD KELLY and FRED'K L. VULTEE. On the second ballot KELLY withdrew, and the race was then between VULTEE and CONNOLLY. The contest between the friends of these candidates was rough, decidedly rough, and fisticuffs, as a method of argument, were freely resorted to. At length, after a noisy session of nearly four hours, the Connolly men drove out the Vultee men by sheer force, and Judge CONNOLLY was accordingly then nominated as Sheriff.

The convention then adjourned, subject to the call of the chair.

The German Democracy.

The German Democratic anti-Tammany Committee met last night and nominated their share of the ticket as follows:

Supervisor—FRED. REPPER.
Coroner—Dr. PHILLIP MERKLE.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—The New Mozart (COZANS) County Convention met Monday night, at Stuyvesant Institute, to complete their nominations of county officers. The proceedings were characterized by noise and confusion throughout, and order appeared to be the last thing thought of. The following were the nominations announced by the Chair, though each one is disputed or characterized as unfair: County Clerk—Major CHARLES G. HALPINE, (Miles O'Reilly.) City Judge — FRANCIS R. TILLOU. Supervisor—VINCENT G. KING. At a late hour, when our reporter left, the convention, amid confusion, were endeavoring to nominate Coroners, with but a poor show for success. Between the intervals of the respective nominations the delegates took part in the sparring match going on in the room beneath.

TAMMANY NOMINATIONS.—The Tammany Hall County Convention met Monday night, and completed their ticket by the following nominations: City Judge, A. D. RUSSELL; District Attorney, A. OAKEY HALL.

UNION MEETINGS.—E. DELAFIELD SMITH, Esq., will speak for the Union and the triumph of Republican principles, at Hartford, this evening, and Mr. ETHAN ALLEN will do the same thing at Danbury, Conn. The good work goes bravely on.

SALE OF STATUARY, &C.—The sale of statuary, groups, vases, busts, figures, &c., by MINER & SOMERVILLE, No. 37 Nassau-street, yesterday, was well attended, and the bidding spirited. So large a collection, as was to be expected, drew forth an unusually critical audience, but the most choice of the collection of statuary figures were not offered in the sale yesterday. They will be sold to-day, at 12 o'clock.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

A purse of $200 will be trotted for at the Fashion Course to-day, three mile heats in harness, for which Port Royal, Shot, Stonewall Jackson, (of Hartford,) and Shark, are entered, which promises to be a most exciting affair, and is creating great interest in trotting circles, as calculated to test the endurance of the equine contestants.

MONADNOCK, IRON-CLAD, FOUR GUNS.—The iron-clad monitor Monadnock, built at the Boston Navy-yard, arrived at the Brooklyn Navy-yard yesterday, having been convoyed on her voyage by the gunboat Massasoit She came through Long Island Sound, and attracted much attention from passing vessels. We gave a description of the vessel recently, and will not repeat it at this time. The following is a list of her officers:

Capt. J. M. Berrien; Lieut.-Commander, Joseph N. Miller; Assist. Surgeon, James Wilson; Assist. Paymaster, Jno. Woolson; Acting Master, B. F. Milliken; Ensigns, W. B. Mix, T. W. Shift, P. Davidson; Engineer's Act. Chief, J. Q. A. Zeigler; Act. 1st Asist, Samuel A. Randall; Act 1st Assist. Wm. A. Philips; Act. 2d Assist. Baxter Smith; Act. 3d Assists. Richard Aldridge, John Price; Act. 3d Assists, Edwd. Moran, T. J. Wild; Gunner, Peter Barrett. Whole number of crew 155.

Massasoit, S. W. 10.—The Massasoit arrived at the Brooklyn Navy Yard yesterday. She convoyed the Monadnock from Boston. She is under orders for Hampton Roads, and may possibly sail in a few hours.

Mohican, S., 7 guns.—The Mohican was ordered to sail yesterday. She will probably get to sea to-day.

Newbern, S., 5 guns.—The supply steamer Newbern is ordered to prepare for sea with all possible dispatch. She will sail as soon as she can be fitted out; it may be before Saturday—the day previously appointed. Parties desiring to send letters and packages to their friends in the North Atlantic Squadron should forward them without delay through the proper channels.

Circassian, S., 7 guns.—Orders have been received to dispatch the Circassian immediately to the South Atlantic Squadron, with the mails and a draft of men. She will probably sail on Saturday from the Brooklyn Navy-yard.

On Thursday a draft of naval recruits will leave here for Panama to replace men in the Pacific Squadron whose time has expired.

On the same day a draft will be sent to Philadelphia, for vessels fitting out at that station.

Revenue Marine—The steam revenue cutter Cuyahoga, Capt. JOHN MCGOWN, sailed yesterday on a special cruise at sea.

Pilgrim, s., 1 gun—The iron screw-tug Pilgrim, building by PUSSEY, JONES & Co., at Wilmington, Del., is nearly ready for launching. She is 176 tons burden, and has a direct acting engine, 34-inch cylinder, and 28 inches stroke of piston.

Napa—The light-draft monitor Napa is being converted into a torpedo-boat. She will have no turret, but will carry one rifle gun on deck in open battery.

PERSONAL.—Admiral S. M. GOLDSBOROUGH, who was at the Brooklyn Navy Yard yesterday, is en route for the Naval Academy at Newport, R. I., where he will preside over a Court-martial to be held there in the case of an offending middy. Commanders GUEST and HOWELL are ordered to the same place as members of the court.

North Carolina, 17 guns.—The receiving ship North Carolina is in a better condition than she has been for some time. Capt. MCKINSTRY has put a stop to most of the rascality which, for a time reigned supreme on board. When a recruit comes on board every cent of his bounty must be paid to him in the presence of an officer of the ship, and if he choose to have it taken care of by a duly appointed officer, he can have it done. Things are working smoothly now in all the departments.

Pensacola, S., 24 guns.—It is reported that the Pensacola is to be towed to Baltimore to receive new boilers and engines.

A. D. Vance, S. W., 5 guns.—The late prize steamer A. D. Vance, is being prepared for active service as a cruiser. She is said to be very fast.

Meeting of the Lincoln Veteran Club.

The returned veterans now in this City favoring the reëlection of ABRAHAM LINCOLN to the Presidency, have formed themselves into a campaign club, and held a meeting at Cooper Institute Monday night, Dr. FISHER presiding and WILLIAM H. DRAPER acting as Secretary. The object of the meeting last evening was to make arrangements for a grand mass meeting to be held in the large hall of the Cooper Union on Monday evening next. Dr. FISHER stated that eminent speakers would address the club on that occasion, and they hoped to see there not only all the returned officers and soldiers that could attend, but all Union-loving citizens who loved their country. The club will hold one more meeting before the mass meeting, in Room No. 18 Cooper Institute, on Thursday evening next, and they hope that all veterans will be present on that occasion and enroll their names. It is certainly an opportunity for old soldiers to cheer and comfort their comrades on the battle-field with the assurance that those who have returned to their homes are not going to participate in a base attack upon the rear of our gallant armies, or join hands with those who ask a cessation of hostilities because the war has been a failure.

UNION MEETING.—The Thirteenth Ward Union Association held a meeting at the hall corner of Broome and Pitt streets, Hon. EPES E. ELLERY presiding. The meeting was addressed by A. C. PAGE, Esq., editor of the New-York Daily Era, a War Democratic journal. The speaker elaborately discussed the issues involved in the canvass, and said that he believed if the lamented DOUGLAS were living he would have been side by side with DIX, LOGAN, and those gallant War Democrats who were supporting President LINCOLN. Mr. PAGE was followed by Dr. SNODGRASS, of the Seventh Ward, in an interesting address. During the proceedings, a committee from the Union (Draper) Fifth Congressional Convention entered and notified Mr. ELLERY that he had been unanimously nominated as their candidate for Congress. Mr. ELLERY briefly but ably accepted the nomination, and now has the united support of the Union men of his District, including a great many War Democrats.

WARD NOMINATIONS.—The Unian party of the First Ward, Brooklyn, have nominated Mr. ALEXANDER MCGRATH, as candidate for Supervisor.

ACCESS TO COLLECTOR DRAPER.—Collector DRAPER has made an improvement in one respect, which will give a great satisfaction. He has made the Collector of the Port accessible to all who call upon him, high or low, rich or poor, politicians or otherwise. The forms of these last not having the preference. Heretofore a great difficulty in having interviews with a collector has been experienced by very many, and no interviews at all have very many more been able to secure. Mr. DRAPER receives all who call, and the impediments which have been in the way, almost as great as those to a royal presence, have been removed. At the same time business is made the rule, and those making unnecessary calls are considered intruders.

TALLOW—Sales 104,000 ℔s., at 15c.@15½c., the latter rate for choice. The week's business in Tallow, Messrs. KNIGHT & SONS notice thus: "Since our last report the market has been inactive, and prices of all grades are merely nominal. During the fore part of the week there were a few sales made at 15c.@15½c., as to quality. The constant fluctuations in foreign exchange causes the market to be very unsettled, and prices change daily. Since Thursday, we note sales of Prime Eastern and Western at 15½c., and some very fair quality was sold at 15c. The demand for home consumption has fallen off very materially, manufacturers not buying more than they can use from day to day; however, the stock on hand is very small for this season of the year. The arrivals of Western are small; we note the sale of a parcel of Western in hhds. at 15½c. The sales of City Rendered for the week were made at 15c.@15½c., the quantity rendered is small, owing partly to the small yield of slaughtered cattle. To-day the market is firm at 15c. for Winter, 15½c.@15¾c. for City and Eastern. The market is very bare of strictly prime brands, and a good article is in request at the full rates. Prime this day, 1858, 10c.; 1859, 10¾c.; 1860, 10c.; 1861, 8¾c.; 1862, 11½c.; 1863, 12½c. ℔ ℔.
